Summary Explanation and Background

Prior to 2018, the Lee County Sheriff's Office provided School Resource Officers in Lee County School. In 2018, after the shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School took the lives of 17 Florida students and educators, the State of Florida enacted the Marjory Douglas High School Public Safety Act, which requires each school district to have one or more School Resource Officers at each school in the district.

In 2018, the City began providing School Resource Officers at schools within the City, thereby increasing the number of SROs and vehicles prior to the 2018-2019 school year. The School Resource Officer Program is now established in the Cape Coral Police Department, and the City recommends entering into a new agreement with the Cape Coral Charter School Authority to provide SRO's for the 2025-2026 school year.
